The Elements Harmonized at Chicago.

Too many men who rely upon hearsay for information instead of reading for themselves, take it for granted that the utmost harmony prevails in the Democratic ranks upon the [illegible] political questions of the day. On account of this they anticipate an easy conquest in November, nothing doubting but that multitudes of Union men will walk up—like chicken to a dough-dish—and swallow the Chicago bait. It is true that all the copperheads will vote for McClellan. It is also true that but few, if any others, will vote in opposition to the re-election of President Lincoln. The rebel peace commissioners, who concocted the Chicago platform, were shrewd in presenting it at the latest possible moment, because they were well aware that if sufficient time were allowed for a thorough analysis by the rank and file of voters, it would prove acceptable to and be supported only by traitors. They were a [illegible] procrastination, [illegible]

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, [illegible] lost at once to purify the system. Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures.

Sanitary Collections.—The contributions for articles to be forwarded for the Sanitary Fair from this city make up an aggregate worth of about $1,- and were appraised, and packed at the Baptist Church, under the supervision of the committee of ladies yesterday. The assortment comprises a large variety of children's dresses, ladies' apparel, pictures, &c. A most elegant picture, representing a view of the Juniata river, Penn, with the ruins of Fort Wyoming, was presented by Mrs. W. Williams. This Fort was taken by the English and Indians, July 5th, 1778, and the garrison were all slaughtered after they had surrendered. History tells that a squaw of the English allies murdered fourteen of the defenseless garrison with her own hands. This picture is not only valuable, as an artistic effort, but the historical event it perpetuates adds much to its importance. It is 3x4 feet in size, done in oil by Mrs. Williams, and is framed by Messrs. Hudson & Shindler, the whole donated. Besides the price of a splendid $150 Grover & Baker Sewing Machine has been presented by the agent, Mr. J. W. J. Pierson, the society to pay but $75 for it.

An Artist's Fun.—Young men very often get into disputes and fights, which is bad enough, but a case came to our notice quite recently which is much worse. A couple of venerable and well known citizens, each bearing the title of distinction, Colonel, entered into an argument, in front of the Court House, and waxed warm over the subject. When at last they nervously laid their canes upon the sidewalk, and prepared to pitch in for a regular "rough and tumble," which was only interrupted by the presence of the Sheriff.

Fine Trout.—Messrs. Johnson & Perkins received by the steamer Rescue last evening, a splendid lot of trout fresh from their natural element in the tributaries of the Cowlitz river. If we have not the time to while away in indulging in the sport of hooking, we shall feel highly gratified with the pleasure of testing the flavor of some of the largest of these, kindly sent to us by the above named gentlemen. Their supply is worthy the attention of all lovers of the scaly dainties.

Cases Before the Recorder.—The following parties, arraigned before the Recorder for violent and disorderly conduct, were fined each $5 and costs, which they paid, and were discharged—Thos. Glover, Peter Miller, M. Rosenthal, Victor Jennings, David Doyle, James Fagan and Charles Lawrence $10 and costs each—paid. Charles Porter, sent up for two days. M. A. Burry, discharged. The case against M. Keith, Daniel Burns and John Ferren was continued.

A Game of Confidence.—A number of our citizens have recently been victimized by a confidence man from the mountains, who assumed to control any amount of "feet" in good ledges, and on the strength of his representations managed to "borrow" considerable money when he decamped, leaving his would be friends in the lurch. Who wouldn't lend a few dollars on the prospect of having a "good thing?"

Steamboating.—Yesterday was a proud day for Col. Frush, because he witnessed the working of his new steam ferry boat. He stood upon its deck apparently as full of satisfaction at the ultimate success of his undertaking as did Fulton at the time of his first rewarded effort at navigating by steam. We embarked on the new institution and witnessed the trial trip, landing from her by the Franz Sigel row boat, at the upper part of the city. The new ferry will soon begin active operations.

Home Again.—Our fellow craft Bro. W. A. Daly arrived home last evening from the Boise country, bringing with him evidences of the increasing profits of developing quartz leads. Mr. Daly is hale and hearty, and feels much better than a "poor print." Take him in his natural element and he is perfect "brick," of a different species from those he brings with him, however.

An Early Trade.—The business of packing apples for the mining regions is at present receiving attention in this city, and furnishing employment for a number of hands. W. W. Baker ships daily large supplies, and their packing depot has become one of the establishments of Portland.

Carriage Making.—We would especially direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Soperson & Elliott, carriage builders which appears in another column this morning. For iron work and general iron finishing Mr. Elliott is the man, and their make of carriages shall not be beat this side of Boston.

Due and Expected.—The steamship Brother Jonathan is now due from San Francisco and Victoria, and will probably be here to-night. The bark Cambridge, from the Sandwich Islands, is also due at this port.

Passengers and Treasure.—One hundred passengers arrived by the steamer Hunt last evening. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger had in charge over $35,000 in treasure.

Auction Sale.—Mr. Richardson will offer some inducements to the trade, at his Auction and Commission House, corner of Oak and Front streets, at 10 o'clock A. M. to-day. See advertisement.

The Circus.—The troupe composing Dan Rice's Circus, performed in this city to a crowded pavilion last evening. They perform again to-night.

From the Upper Columbia.—By the arrival of Wells, Fargo & Co's Express last evening we are in receipt of papers from different sections of the upper Columbia country, from which we condense the following of interest concerning the Boise Basin:

For the time of year, and scarcity of water for mining purposes, trade seems to keep up remarkably well, and there are at present no complaints on the part of any, except perhaps, the proprietors of a few surplus "whisky mills," that they are doing nothing.

The District Court convenes on the 26th at Idaho City. Notwithstanding Judge Parks' nomination for the Delegateship, it is understood he will hold this term, unless the arrival of Chief Justice Wood son should relieve him.

New and important quartz discoveries are continually being made, the last being in the vicinity of the North Fork of the Boise river. Some twenty different ledges have been discovered and located, principally of silver bearing quartz which rival in richness anything yet found. The first discovery in that locality was made only about a fortnight since, after which some six or eight other ledges were discovered and a town has been laid out called Silver City. The distance from Idaho City is about miles.

The quality of vegetables and other products of the soil, brought from the Boise and Payette river valleys is very large, averaging for the past month not less than a dozen wagon loads per day, brought to this place alone. Owyhee, and South Boise are equally as good markets for the products of the Boise Valley, which is the main dependence of the the vegetables grown are very fine and large, and are to be had everywhere. Many in large quantities has been made upon Moore's creek, Grimes' creek, and Granite creek flats, as well as in the river valleys before referred to, and sells at far less than one-fifth of the price asked the same time last year.

From the Walla Walla Statesman of the 16th we clip the following:

Col. Justus Steinberger, of the 1st W. T. Infantry, who has recently been reinstated in his command by the War Department, arrived at Fort Walla Walla on Wednesday and at once assumed command of his Regiment and the post.

The immigration still comes pouring in. Travelers from Boise this week say that the road is literally lined with immigrant wagons. The most of them seem to be destined to the Willamette valley.

The different vegetable and meat shops throughout the city keep on hand a full assortment, in their respective departments. Our cabbage is "yellow-jaundiced"-like; little or no sale. Beef is worth from 12½ to 25c. per lb.; veal, lb.; Mutton 16 to 20c; eggs, 50c per doz.; butter, per lb., chickens—$5 to $8 per doz.; Green apples from the Willamette are abundant in market and selling at 1½c. to 10c per pound. Boxes of these (40 lb.) were sold this week at $5 per box.

The Golden Age of the 10th has the following:

Idaho county in Legal Tenders on the 11th inst., paid into the Territorial Treasury the sum of ... which with about $1,000 received by the Territory from the county within the present year.

Several large pack trains were loaded in this city and started yesterday for Kootenai, and quite a large number of miners who have recently arrived from the various mining camps of the Territory.

Capt. Gleason and Fagan arrived in town on Monday evening from Fort Walla Walla on their way to Fort Lapwai, whither we understand they have been summoned to attend a Court Martial.

Won't Endorse Him.—The Democratic Press of this city refuses to endorse its candidates. It places the name of McClellan at the head of its columns, but declines to indorse him. It says: "We do not wish to be understood as indorsing the personal opinions of Gen. McClellan, that the existence of more than one government once owned by our flag, is incompatible with peace, power, or happiness of our people." Thus it appears that the Press refuses to indorse its own candidate.—S. F. Flag.

Mining Quartz.—The "White Bull" continues to turn out fine specimens. The Union Company is now taking out a large amount of fine looking rock, specimens of which have arrived in town. The wagon road is fast approaching completion, and the quartz mill will soon be grinding the bones of the White Bull to powder for their precious ore.—Statesman.

Attention Washington Artillery.—Your Company will meet for Drill, this (Wednesday) evening at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oyster in its raw state, and thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a miserable article has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is strengthening, soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

HORSE SHOER—STAR SHOP!

NO. 1 FRONT STREET, PORTLAND.

ONCE upon a time, both a Saddler and a Blacksmith were required to work upon a Horse, but now the boots are done away with, and the Saddler is required no more. And not long ago Missourian Shoeing was very prevalent in this city, but now it is done away with, because the best of judges pronounce it to be only fit for Cayuse Ponies, and not for American Horses.

Having had great experience in the line of HORSE SHOEING, gentlemen favoring me with a trial can rely upon having their work executed in the best workmanlike manner, and upon the most reasonable terms.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

A Story for the Dog Days.

[Concluded.]

The Captain uttered an exclamation excusable in a military man, but not to be recorded here. He sprung to his feet and rushed into the parlor. There, having glanced [illegible] pills, and, looking at his fingers, he saw distinctly the deep marks of two rows of sharp teeth, across the [illegible] from which blood was dripping.

"That confounded mad dog has bitten me," he ejaculated. "Send for the doctor. Do something. Do you want me to die of hydrophobia?"

Shrieks resounded through the house. [illegible] were forgotten; Mrs. Owen wept. Mr. Owen spoke words of comfort; Mrs. Rustic dispatched Abigail's cousin, who happened to be in the kitchen, for Dr. Applejack, and Miss Estella really felt like fainting for once in her life.

The Captain sat despairing on the sofa, with his face in his pocket handkerchief. Abigail from time to time presented herself at the door with such words of comfort as—"I allus knowed he would be the one to be a victim," or "Don't you feel no symptoms yet, Cap'n?"

Presently the disciple of Esculapius arrived—a stout gentleman, with a gold-headed cane and enormous clanking seal at his watch-chain. He looked at the Captain's fingers and shook it again. After this he enumerated various symptoms, each of which, as it was mentioned, the Captain felt distinctly, and finished the examination by one of those doubtful verdicts peculiar to doctors, which left matters in such a position that, if the Captain recovered, it would be entirely owing to the physician, and, if he fell a victim to the bite, no one could doubt the said physician's sagacity in foreseeing the fatal event.

The result was that the Captain soon felt worse, and betook himself to bed, while consternation reigned in the dwelling.

Meanwhile Farmer Tompkins, owner of the rabid Jowler, made search for him in vain. Popular superstition placed that rabid animal in the Rustic's cellar, and the house was avoided by common consent.

All known remedies were applied, and Dr. Applejack, thinking it as well to turn an honest penny while he could, sent in quarts of medicine daily. The Captain took it all, and no wonder he grew so rapidly worse. It was whispered through the house that the poor Captain was doomed. No one doubted it. Miss Estella, who had all along known she liked him, began to feel a terrible aching at her heart. As she leaned over his pillow he whispered something about his hopes, asked her to visit his grave sometimes, and to remember him "when other lips and other hearts," &c.

Mrs. Owens, a really tender-hearted little body, wept in the solitude of her own room, and was questioned by Orlando.

"Mozzer, what you crying for?"

"For the poor captain, Orly."

"He's a nassy man."

"Oh, no, Orly! not a nassy man. He's a dear good man; and it's dreadful!"

"He pinched Orly!"

"But Orly was a little naughty; an' we mustn't remember that now he's going to die."

"To die!" Orlando's eyes grew rounder than ever. "What makes the captain die, mozzer?"

"That dreadful dog bit him and he'll go mad like the dog, Orly."

"Does mad dogs till when they bite?"

"Yes, dear."

"Does mad boys?"

"What do you mean?"

"When a mad boy bites anybody does he till em?"

"Do you mean an angry boy?"

"Yes, mozzer; a boy gets awful mad."

"No, Orly."

"Mozzer, I don't b'lieve the captain will die."

"Oh, yes, he will!" and Mrs. Owen wept once more.

"Will you always cry if the captain dies, mozzer?" asked Olando.

"I feel as if I should," said Mrs. Owen. "It's such a dreadful thing, and I had been talking against him all day."

"If he gets well, you'll laugh, mozzer?"

"Yes, Orly; but he can't."

"Mad boys don't till when zey bite?"

"No, pet."

"Well don't shut me up in the closet if I will tell."

"No, Orly."

"I bit Captain Oakleigh."

"You!"

"Yes, mozzer. I was awful mad, because he pulled my ear, and I thought maybe mad boys could till when dey bite like mad dogs; so I got under de bench and bit him hard. But I was sorry when you cried."

"Oh, Orly, Orly! but I'm so glad. You bad boy. How could you? There, come right away and tell the Captain."

This was more than Orlando expected. He resisted with squeals and kicks. But, paternal authority being exerted in addition to maternal, he was conveyed to the Captain's chamber, and there made full confession.

"How, firstly, he was "mad" at the Captain, and wanted to "till" him; how, finding him asleep, he bit him; how he felt sorry when his mother wept, &c., &c.

The result was that the Captain came down stairs that day to dinner, popped the question that day to Miss Estella, and was accepted, and disappointed the doctor and undertaker.

He said nothing to the Owens, but to his bethrothed he in a moment of confidence whispered his belief that the infant Orlando's bite was quite as venomous as that of any member of the canine species.

Two days after Jowler, the suspected, walked back to the Tompkins' dwelling, wagging his tail and appearing as usual.

From his demeanor, it was plain that he had never been rabid—from an end of rope about his neck equally certain that he had been stolen and tied up in strange quarters; and to this day there are two parties in, one of which declares that Mrs. Blossom was pursued by a mad dog; the other, that she only imagined the animal and fled from her own shadow.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has too long baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public:

Rev. JOHN PIERPONT,	THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER,	PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M. D.,	JAMES C. DUNN,
SAMUEL MAY,	Rev. THOS. WHITTEMORE.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by combination IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most eminent and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,

LIVER, KIDNEYS,

DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates and analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 1, 1858, page 76.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H. Anders & Co. Physicians and Chemists, New York.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain tops, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effect of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

BARABOO, WIS., Sept. 15, 1864.

* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.

C. A. FLAUTE.

SEVEN WAYS, O., July 28, 1864.

* * * Our young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by two bottles of your Bitters.

EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
New York, August 2, 1863.

"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.

Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once refreshed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
